

What is a District Council

District councils cover a smaller area than a county council

Each county is divided into several districts

Districts protect and improve quality of life by doing some of the following:

Council Tax

Housing

Rubbish and recycling

Planning

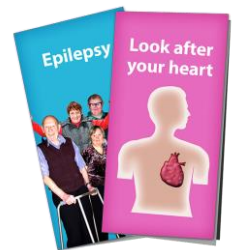

Leisure

Supporting communities

Protecting our environment

Promoting public health and wellbeing

You can find your local council by going to <https://www.gov.uk/find-local-council>