

What is a Hospital?

A hospital is a place to treat the sick or injured

Hospitals are staffed by nurses doctors and other health professionals

All hospital treatment is free if you live in the UK

If you are visitor to the UK you may well be charged for some treatments

Some services are free to all, in NHS hospitals in England, this includes:

Emergency treatment

Family Planning Services

Treatment for infectious diseases